4.2.1 Shri Ganganath Jha Campus, Prayagraj (Uttar Pradesh)

गंगानाथशानुसन्धानसंस्थानप्रारम्भः (फरवरी १३, १९४५)

1. Introduction

History of Central Sanskrit University, Ganganath Jha campus starts from 17 November 1943 AD, when it was established in its earlier form as Ganganath Jha Research Institute. In the picturesque terrain of Tirtharaj Prayagraj situated on the holy banks of Ganges, Yamuna and Saraswati, Sir Ganganath Jha Research Institute was established on 17 November, 1943 AD by Mahamana Pt. Madan Mohan Malviya Dr. Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Dr. Bhagwan Das, Dr. Sarvpalli Radha Krishnan, Justice shree Kamlakant Verma, Dr. Gopinath

Kaviraj, Dr. Amar Nath Jha, Dr. Eshwari Prasad, Dr. Rambabu Saxena, Lt. Governor Adityanath Jha and his followers, disciples and various family members at Hindu Hostel on the occasion of second death anniversary of Dr. Ganganath Jha.

On 17 November 1943, on the occasion of the inauguration of Ganganath Jha Research Institute Mahamana Pt. Madan Mohan Malviya in his inaugural lecture had said -

"There is need for more than one center like the one you are proposing to erect here. I hope and pray that your efforts may be crowned with success and that you may be able really to build up an active center of research for ancient Sanskrit learning and other oriental languages. Knowledge is universal and it ought to be popularised. We hope that this center will be a means of creating such and other centres."

"To the students of Sanskrit, there cannot be a better ideal for inspiration than an Institute of this kind created in memory of Dr. Ganganath Jha.

With the efforts of M.M. Dr. Umesh Mishra after acquirement of land from U.P. government in Chandra Shekhar Azad Park in Compunoy Garden the foundation stone of this building was laid on 13.02.1945 by the then Governor of U.P. Sir Maurice Hallett.

Sir Maurice told in very emotional words that Dr. Jha did not belong to any particular state but belonged to the whole nation. Considering his attachment to Prayagraj, it is very appropriate that a research institute should be built here in his memory from where his residual work would gain momentum.

Dr. Baburam Saxena, Dr. Ishwari Prasad, Dr. S.P. Chaturvedi and Pt. K.C. Chattopadhyay were in this committee. Till this time, the main work of the Research Institute was the publication of 'Journal'.

Mahamahopadhyay Dr. P.V. Kane, Sir Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, Dr.F. W. Thomas (Oxford), Prof. Franklin Edgerton (New York), Maulvi Saeed Suleman Naqvi (Azamgarh) and Prof. Mohammad Safi were its respected members. Mr. Gopal Swaroop Pathak, Dr. Dharendra Verma, Sir S. 4.2.10 K.J. Somaiyya Campus, Mumbai

1. Introduction

The selfless and visionary Padma Bhushan awardee, Shri Karamshi Jethabhai Somaiya, made significant contributions in the fields of education and social service. He established an educational institution at Somaiya Vidyavihar, which is now one of the largest and most respected educational institutions, known globally as Somaiya Vidyavihar University. The Somaiya family is religious and has a deep affection for the Sanskrit language. As a result, Shri Shantilal Somaiya, the son of K.J. Somaiya, submitted a proposal to the Ministry of Human Resource Development (HRD) to establish a campus of the National Sanskrit Institute (Deemed University), New Delhi, at Somaiya Vidyavihar.

Following the proposal, which included the allocation of one acre of land for the construction of a building by the K.J. Somaiya Trust, Vidyavihar, Mumbai, a committee appointed by the National Sanskrit Institute conducted an inspection and recommended the establishment of its constituent Vidyapeeth there. The Ministry of Human Resource Development of the Government of India, through a decision taken on 31st March 2002, agreed with the committee's recommendations. The K.J. Somaiya Trust allowed the institution to use its existing infrastructure to conduct classes until the building was constructed.

On the auspicious day of 16th May 2002, the then Honourable Minister of Human Resource Development, Dr. Murli Manohar Joshi, inaugurated the Mumbai campus. 4.2.12 Shri Raghunath Kirti Campus, Devprayag, Uttarakhand

1. Introduction

The Central Sanskrit University acts as the nodal agency of the Government of India for the preservation and promotion of the Sanskrit language worldwide. Established as the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan on October 15, 1970, this institution was granted the status of a central university by the Government of India in 2021, and its name was changed to Central Sanskrit University. Last year, the university received an 'A++' grade from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). With 12 campuses across Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Kerala, Karnataka, Odisha, and Tripura, its 12th campus was established in Devprayag in 2016 under the name Shri Raghunath Kirti. Spread over a vast 23-acre area, this campus currently has students from 16 states enrolled in it. Before the establishment of this campus, the Shri Raghunath Kirti Adarsh Sanskrit College, founded in 1908, was operational here. The founders of this college had envisioned the establishment of a prestigious university on this land in the future. The Shri Raghunath Kirti campus of the then Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan was established by acquiring the aforementioned college.

Located in Devprayag on the Rishikesh-Srinagar-Badrinath National Highway, the campus was inaugurated on February 20, 2024, by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. On June 22, 2023, the Dharma Samrat Karpatri Ji Maharaj Vedashastra Research Center at the campus was inaugurated by Uttarakhand's Chief Minister, Pushkar Singh Dhami. Situated near the confluence of the Bhagirathi and Alaknanda rivers and the famous Shri Raghunath Bhagwan temple, the Shri Raghunath Kirti campus is committed to the preservation and promotion of Sanskrit education. Along with imparting scriptural education, the campus aims to raise awareness among students and society regarding health, cleanliness, environment, and cultural preservation. From time to time, students of the campus perform plays and songs in various villages and institutions to spread such messages. The campus's National Service Scheme (NSS) unit instills a sense of dedication to the nation and society in the students while motivating them toward national service.

The Shri Raghunath Kirti campus offers studies and PhD programs in subjects such as Jyotish (Astrology), Vedas, Vedanta, Literature, Grammar, and Nyaya (Logic). There are special facilities for students interested in fields like sports, music, yoga, and teaching. In the eight years since its inception, this campus has secured a top position among Sanskrit education centers in Uttarakhand. Notably, in migration-affected Uttarakhand, this campus has significantly curbed the migration of students seeking higher Sanskrit education. Now, students from remote mountain areas no longer need to travel to places like Haridwar or Varanasi to pursue Sanskrit studies.

The campus also offers B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees in Yoga Science and a diploma in priesthood and rituals (Paurohitya Karmakanda). Residential facilities for around 600 students are available at very low fees, with separate hostels for boys and girls. The large central library, open for 12 hours a day, provides book lending services and has an e-library facility. Most of the professors reside on campus. Preparation for NET and other competitive exams is also conducted on the premises. Every Friday, students of the campus conduct cleanliness drives and perform the Ganga Aarti at the riverbank. Special educational programs are organized to ensure student participation on occasions like Environment Day, International Yoga Day, Sanskrit Week, Vigilance Awareness Week, Hindi Day, and Mother Language Day.
