IV) GANGANATH JHA KENDRIYA SANSKRIT VIDYAPEETHA ALLAHABAD.

The Ganganath Jha Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Allahabad is a Research Institution which is a part of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, an autonomous body under the Ministry of Education and Culture, New Delhi. The Vidyapeetha admits every year a certain number of research scholars to carry out Research work for the Ph.D. (Vidyavaridhi) Degree of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan. The scholars thus enrolled work under the guidance of one of the members of the academic staff of the Vidyapeetha utilising the facilities available in the Library of the Vidyapeetha as well as in its Manuscript-Wing. The use of the Library and the Manuscripts is not limited to the staff and the scholars of the Vidyapeetha. The Vidyapeetha open-heartedly welcome people from all walks of life interested in Sanskrit and ancient Indian Culture to make free use of its Library subject to its capacity.

The Vidyapeetha at present has an academic staff of five Readers, four Lecturers and five Research Assistants, all of whom besides guiding the research work of the student-pursue their own research work assigned to them by the Sansthan. The Research Projects of the Vidyapeetha are carried out not only individually but also as a team work. The central research activity of the Vidyapeetha consists of the preparation of critical editions of higher to unknown and unpublished Sanskrit texts. For this purpose mainly the manuscripts preserved in our Library are used and their text is compared and collated with the manuscripts or copies thereof procured from all over the world. To a limited extent, studies in problems of Sanskrit language and Literature, Religion and Philosophy are also conducted. An important feature of this Institute since 1979 is the functioning of a Linguistic Unit which is striving to device means and methods for the simplification of Sanskrit Teaching.

The Vidyapeetha also subscribes all Indological Journals of repute published either in India or abroad. number of Sanskrit Magazines are also received regularly in the Library.

MANUSCRIPT LIBRARY

The manuscript Library of this Vidyapeetha contains 44,200 volumes. Of these 1210 manuscripts have been procured in the year 1987-88. These volumes cover almost all fields of Shastras in which Sanskrit books have been written in the past. The nucleus of this Library was formed by the Mas. Collection of Sir Ganganath Jha which was donated to this Institute when it was founded. There were about 13,000 accessioned manuscripts at the time of take-over in 1971. This number has now swollen to 44,200 and most of these 30,000 manuscripts have been published in the last few years. Though these manuscripts belong to various branches of Sanskrit learning as already said, the Library is especially rich in the manuscript pertaining to Tantra, Nyaya, Dharam-Shastra and Sahitya. Many of these manuscripts have been edited by the Research Officer and students of this Vidyapeetha and some of them have already been published.

RESEARCH PROJECTS COMPLETED/PUBLICATIONS

The main activity of the Vidyapeetha is to prepare critical editions of unpublished Sanskrit texts on the basis of manuscripts. However, it also undertakes and carries out other bigger projects. The most stupendous Research Project completed this year after a constant labour of eight years is the compilation of the PUNJABI SANSKRIT GLOSSARY, of a dictionary of the words of Sanskrit origin which are in use in Punjabi language. This Dictionary shall be of great help in preparing Sanskrit courses for Punjabi speaking people. The Dictionary was formally released by Hon'ble Dr. Shankar Doyal Sharma, the Vice President of India on the 2nd February, 1988. Praising the Dictionary, he described it as a great academic achievement and hoped that similar Dictionaries in other languages would also be prepared.

The Vidyapeetha has its own publication and sales unit. The Research programme of the Vidyapeetha, when completed, are published by the Institute itself and are available for sale. The Vidyapeetha has also been regularly publishing a quarterly Research Journal of Indology since its beginning (1943) This Journal which is running into 44th year of its publication has long since attained an international status and reputed scholars from all over the world regularly contribute to it.

No teacher is imparted in this Vidyapeetha. However, since a few years unique scheme for the preservation of ancient Shastras has been launched by the Ministry of Education, Government of India under which talented students after completion of their studies as well as teachers are selected for a deeper, intensive and profound study of the most important Shastric texts irrespective of any restriction of study-period or load of examination. Under this "Shastra-Chudamani" scheme one veteran scholar, namely Dr. C.B. Tripathi, is attached to this Vidyapeetha.

LIBRARY

The Vidyapeetha is proud of its rich Library of Indological books and journals. It contains approximately 54,000 volumes including 6000 volumes of various journals. In the year 1987-88, 700 new books and 127 volumes of journals were added to our stock. It contains not only ancient and rare text of Sanskrit but also secondary literature and studies on various topics pertaining to Indological subjects such as Indian Religion, Philosophy, History, Art and Architecture, Natural Sciences, Literature and Languages. We try to procure all important publications not only in Hindi and English but also writ en in other European and Indian Languages such as Go French, Russian, Italian, Japanese, Bengali, Gujrati, Mar and Tamil. The procurement system of the Library is so p that there is hardly any important publication in the fie Indology published in the past few years which may not be available in our Library.

18 Vidyavaridhi students were registered.
21 students are getting research scholarhip. The editing of 9 books is under progress.

Shri Banmali Biswal joined as Lecturer on 18/4/88.
